

Please do not allow businesses to have free access to call me. The current telephone laws have really made a positive difference. If I want to discuss business and products with companies I will initiate the conversaton. I do not want these firms contacting me as in the past as they try to sell their products. Thanks!

-Doug Franson